Live, Work & Learn in Jerusalem

A unique Sherut Leumi volunteer program for women founded by MIDRESHET YEUD in conjunction with The Jerusalem Municipality

Our goal is to strengthen your bond to Jerusalem through:

- Spending a year of your life living in Jerusalem!
- Official Sherut Leumi volunteering program in Jerusalem
- Inspiring shiurim
- Special Israel-advocacy and leadership seminars
- Tours and hikes in Jerusalem and throughout Israel
- Informal meetings with dynamic speakers and leaders
- Dates: September 1, 2010–August 30, 2011*
- Age: 18–22 Price: $9,500

Sherut Leumi Full Sherut Leumi program under the auspices of the Jerusalem municipality. A wide range of choices in the fields of education, health, social and welfare organizations throughout the city. Official Sherut Leumi certificate awarded at the end of the year.

Shiurim In class we will make you think and challenge you to understand what you believe in – and why. Shiurim will take place at Midreshet Yeud four days a week after the Sherut Leumi work day.

Israel advocacy seminar (30 hours) Through dynamic educational seminars and workshops, you will be given the tools and information you need to voice the truth and stand up for Israel on campus.

Leadership seminar You will receive advanced training and acquire techniques to assist you in becoming a young leader in your home community.

Jerusalem from the inside a series of 10 tours of Jerusalem will give you a deep sense of belonging. Experience our holy city from the days of the kings up to modern times.

Hikes and trips Experience Israel from North to South through our fun, educational and inspiring tiyulim.

Location based at Midreshet Yeud's campus in Jerusalem. Comfortable air-conditioned rooms with in-suits and wireless internet, gym, laundry facilities and dining hall. Our experienced staff builds personal relationships with each individual in our "home away from home".

The program is approved by the Jewish Agency's MASA Program that automatically awards $1000 to every participant. MASA also provides needs-based scholarships of up to $3000 (in addition to the MASA $1,000 grant) to those in financial need. MASA grants are only available for those who have not already spent a year in Israel.

* A one semester option is also available.

The pilot program (for the year 2010-2011) can host ONLY 10 girls. Don't miss this opportunity!
